

The project brief was to model two 20 metre long water pipes with special reference to the excessive drop at the left-hand end of the small pipe (see photo below).

The result was the 3D CAD model shown below.

